

Christia J. Hall

1300 SW Park Ave. Apt. 710, Portland, OR 97201
503 298-8385 - christiahall@gmail.com

---

Summary

Enthusiastic professional, delivering classy service, quality customer interaction and a consistent pour. Experienced bartender who takes pride in the food and beverage craft, working efficiently and keeping patrons satisfied.

---

Highlights

- mastery of martinis and hand-crafted cocktails
  - familiarity with types of wines and food pairings
  - wine presentation
  - flair for the complex science of mixology
  - strong aptitude for numbers and details
  - diplomatic problem solver
  - smooth adaptation to heavy volume
  - organized and systematic
  - friendly conversationalist
  - collaborative team player
-

Work Experience

- |                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2019 - Current                                 | Acquia – Portland, OregonPosition: Support Engineer. Responsible for customer service and support with software implementation, troubleshooting, web development, documentation via tickets and phone                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 2012 - 2018                                    | FosterClub – Seaside, OregonPosition: web developer. Past: office administrator; finance managerResponsibilities: develop web-based products and maintain website; organization's bookkeeping and administering finances, payroll, accounts payable and receivable, supplies                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2014 - 2015Periodically when needed | Astoria Coffee House – Astoria, OregonPositions: caterer, bartenderResponsibilities: serving and bartending at catered events                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 2010 - 2011                                    | Owl Tree Bookstore – Hutchinson, KansasPosition: owner/operator                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 2008 - 2010                                    | Brooks On Main Street Café – Hutchinson, KansasPosition: co-founder and manager, baker, baristaResponsibilities: baking, coffee counter service, menu design, food preparation, training, scheduling live music events                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2007 - 2008                                    | Marcella's Red Lion & Lounge – Hutchinson, KansasPositions: Bartender, ServerResponsibilities: creating handcrafted cocktails and martinis; pouring calls and draws, entertaining while maintaining a professional but relaxed atmosphere in a fine-dining setting; training other bartenders; filling drink orders from wait staff, reporting inventory, restocking bar as needed, changing kegs, taking and serving dinner orders, credit card batching and balancing drawer |
| 2006 - 2007                                    | Macatawa Bay Yacht Club – Holland, MichiganPositions: Bartender, ServerResponsibilities: filled drink orders for wait staff and served bar guests at dinner and private parties; took and served dinner orders for large groups, maintained supply and changed kegs, other regular bartending duties                                                                                                                                                                           |

2005 - 2006

The Curragh Irish Pub - Holland, Michigan
Positions: Server, Cocktailer

---

Education & Certification

American's Alcohol Certified Education Association
OLCC Card

American's Alcohol Certified Education Association
OLCC Card

Food Safety Educators, LLC., 2016
Oregon Food Handlers Card

Kaplan University, 2014
Associates of Science in Health Science

Army Academy of Health and Medicine, 2010
Earned: Advanced Individualized Training Army Occupational Specialty 68W/Healthcare Specialist, CPR (American Heart Association), EMT-B (National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians)

Hutchinson Community College, 2009
Pre-medical studies: psychology, philosophy, algebra, trigonometry, chemistry, English composition and others

Macatawa Bay Yacht Club - 2006
Extensive on-the-job training: wine service, martinis and cocktails, draws, calls, workspace organization, customer service, inventory control, damage control, setup and breakdown, polishing and safety

---

References

Ryan – Friend
971 336-2723

Nevin – Friend
503 310-8826

Daren Schaad – Coworker at Acquia
971 645-3407